MOST URGENT WANTS

There's a world of interest in the Want Ads. They reflect the urgent desires of various business, households and individuals.

The Wants tell what is most needed. If the cook has left, if a worker is needed in the office or factory, if an article of value is lost or found, if there is urgent necessity to sell a piece of property, secure tenants, room or boarders—all such conditions are expressed and met in the Want Columns.

The Wants are close to the heart interests of the people. It is interesting to watch them carefully.

THE BOOSTER.

I'd rather be a booster than a knocker any day.

I'd rather live with hope than doubt the words I have to say.

I'd rather miss my gun than miss Of another man's success.

Than to view his bitter struggle and prophesy his fall.

I would rather say "he's coming." Than "he's going," when I'm summing.

Up the labors of my brothers. I would rather boost them all.

I would rather speak the kind things than the mean things any day.

I'd rather swing a baton than a hammer, let me say.

I would rather sing my rhyme in a sort of two-step time.

Than to let it drag in dirges in a gloomy, heavy style.

I would rather say "God bless you!" And with words of cheer impress you.

Than to preach about your follies all the while.

I would rather be a booster than a knocker any day.

I'd rather praise than criticize in what I have to say.

I'd rather not be wise At the cost of other's sighs.

I would rather see the good things than the evil that men do.

I would rather far be wrong When I boost a man along.

Than be perfect in my judgment, but make everybody blue.

—Detroit Free Press.
